
Jackson, Michigan April 16, 2019: Anderton Machining is pleased to announce the installation of four new CNC lathes. These machines will be performing rough and semi-finish turning of steel forgings for newly added business at Anderton.

Anderton Machining, centrally located in Jackson, Michigan has 220,000 sq.ft. of manufacturing space. Anderton Machining's strengths are its very knowledgeable and dedicated workforce, providing our customers with zero-defect products and on-time delivery. Offering; precision machining, Swiss turning and grinding, gear shaping and spline, induction hardening, and Assembly. Anderton Machining is your machining and assembly partner for Automotive, Heavy Truck, Defense and On and Off-Highway vehicles.

Contact: info@andertonlab.com

www.andertonmachining.com

